

Sunday, Sept. 25th.

CONESVILLE.

'NOOZE.'

CONESVILLE, Sept. 28, 1887.

The sad news was circulated on Saturday morning that Mrs. Rebecca S. Estle, wife of Jacob T. Estle, had died at her home in Oakland township, after an illness of about ten days, and brought a feeling of sorrow and sympathy to every one. Impressive funeral services were held at the house on Sunday morning, by Rev. Mr. Bishop, of Lone Tree, and were attended by friends and neighbors from Oakland, Orono, Cedar and Fremont townships. A long procession followed the remains to the cemetery on High Prairie, in 76 township.

James J. Billick, one of our old and respected citizens, died Tuesday morning, after an illness of two weeks, of typhoid dysentery. His wife, five sons and a daughter survive him. The funeral is to-morrow and the burial will be at the Columbus City cemetery. The afflicted friends have the sympathy of all their acquaintances.

Miss Anna Bliven is visiting with friends in Burlington.

Mrs. Eva Mickey, of West Liberty, is visit-

