

R. J. (Dick) Boyd Dies Suddenly

Robert J. (Dick) Boyd, Prospect and Mill streets, Butler, passed away in Kansas City following a heart attack Monday, April 6.

He was born June 20, 1920 at Metz, Mo., the son of John Franklin and Lena Bingle Boyd.

Mr. Boyd was a transport driver with the Jack Cooper Transfer Co. He was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Church of Christ.

He is survived by his wife, Kathleen, and six sons, Roger, Jerry, Mike, Wilson, Stacey and Kevin and one daughter, Linda, all of the home; his mother, Mrs. Lena Boyd of Rich Hill; three brothers, Clarence of Butler, Edward of Clinton, Carl of San Diego, Calif.; five sisters, Ethel Swickhammer and Lena O'Rear of Rich Hill, Marie O'Rear and Lucille Mackey, Iowa City, Ia., Lola Arbogast, Gary, Indiana.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday at the Culver-Underwood Chapel with John Clark officiating. Burial in Oak Hill cemetery.

R.J. (Dick) Boyd Dies Suddenly

KDO

Clipped By:

kevinorear

Mon, Mar 4, 2024