

BUTLER — Floyd Earl Orear, 81, Foster, Mo., died Dec. 24, 1991, in a hospital in Butler. He was a lifelong Foster resident. Mr. Orear was a dairy farmer from 1944 until he retired in 1975. He was a coal shovel operator for the Robinson Coal Co. of Foster from the early 1930s to 1944. He was a member of the Fulton Street Church of Christ, Butler. Survivors include a son, Buford Orear, Foster; a daughter, Nina Clark, Fort Scott, Kan.; three brothers, Virgil Orear, Kansas City, Doyle Orear, Mesa, Ariz., and Francis "Bill" Orear, Camdenton, Mo.; two sisters, Deloras Henry, Elk Grove Village, Ill., and Mildred Mullies, Grandview; four grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren. Services will be at 1 p.m. Friday at the Schowengerdt Chapel, Butler.

Obituary of Floyd Earl Orear

KDO

Clipped By:

kevinorear

Thu, Mar 7, 2024