

CONESVILLE

Conesville, Feb. 23.—At about midnight Friday night occurred the death of Fred Billick at the home of his brothers, Lewis and Jefferson, a mile west of town.

He was a sufferer of consumption and had spent the past few weeks at his brothers' home, where he died.

He is survived by several children but only one, Mrs. Ellis Swank was with him at the time of his death.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Oakland church with interment in the Beauchamp cemetery by the side of his wife, who died several years ago.

Other News.

Conesville

col. 5 Death of John Charles Fremont "Fred" Billick from consumption

KDO

Clipped By:

kevinorear
Sun, Oct 30, 2022