Helen Wetrich, Francis Billick Marry Here

*Ceremony Held At St. Patrick's Church
Yesterday Morning*

Helen Wetrich, 24 of Iowa City, and Francis Ward Billick were married yesterday at 8 a.m. in the St. Patrick's church, with the Rev. P. J. O'Reilly officiating at the ceremony.

Wearing a blue boja crepe gown with a three-quarter length jacket and a white starched linen hat, the bride carried Joan Hill roses. White accessories completed her ensemble.

Her bridesmaid, Eileen Kelley of Cedar Rapids, wore a peach crepe frock with a three quarter length jacket and a white hat and accessories. Miss Kelley, cousin of the bride, carried Briarcliff roses.

John Welch attended as best man at the wedding. Only relatives and close friends attended.

Following the ceremony, guests at the wedding were entertained at a breakfast given by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wetrich, at their home, 1204 E. Burlington street.

Mrs. Billick, a member of Theta Phi Alpha social sorority, belongs to the Home Economics club, the Hesperian literary society, and to Newman club. She will continue her work in the university.

Mr. Billick, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Billick, 420 S. Clinton street, is employed by the Billick Transfer company. The couple will be at home at 332 N. Dubuque.
