Lorinda Lee Orear "Grammee," age 80 of Hume, Missouri died Friday, January 22, 2016 at the home of Shawn and Angelena. She was born December 2, 1935 to Roy Earnest and Agnes Luetta Evans Daniel in Butler, Missouri.

Lorinda, one of three children, was a lifelong resident of Bates County. She attended Wilcox, Tygard and Tripp Elementary Schools and in 1953 graduated from Butler High School. On April 23, 1960, she was united in marriage to Buford Cecil Orear and to this union, two sons were born. Lorinda was employed by Sam Fuller Quarries and the ASCS Office prior to working full time on the farm with her husband. She belonged to the Ft. Scott, Kansas Church of Christ, was a 1970 founding member of the Foster Farmettes, served as a 4-H leader, was involved in Science Olympiad, created Caring People in Touch and volunteered at the Hume School.

Lorinda was selfless--giving of her time and energy to others. She was the true definition of unconditional love and lived by her philosophy that it is more blessed to give than to receive. She loved her family and all that life on the farm offered. She also found joy in gardening, cooking, shopping, a girls night out and her many civic involvements. Full of faith and grace, Lorinda was caring and devoted in Godly ways.

Lorinda is survived by her husband of 55 years, Buford Cecil Orear of Hume, Missouri; two sons, Shawn Orear and wife Angelena and Stacy Orear all of Hume, Missouri; one brother, Jack Daniel and wife Renee of Eldorado Springs, Missouri; one sister, Lois Bonavee Cayton of Appleton City, Missouri; and two granddaughters, Kayla Orear and Katie Pruitt and husband Eric all of Hume, Missouri. She was preceded in death by her parents.
