

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.
Brief Notes of Things in General
Gathered by "Tribune" Reporters.

Carnival night at the rink.
Mercury 32 at six this morning.
 Louis Johnson, of the TRIBUNE composing room, is on the sick list.
 Chew Jackson's best sweet navy tobacco.
 Gen. Franz Sigel was presented with a gold-headed cane at the close of his lecture in Dubuque, Iowa, last Friday night.
 Try Challenge and Standard coffee, H. J. Cooke's tea and grocery house, Odd Fellow's block. tf Leibig, the florist, furnished a handsome bouquet for the pulpit of the First M. E. church yesterday.
 Don't miss the fun at the rink to-night.
 The sale of delinquent tax lands is going on to-day in the county treasurer's office, with but very few buyers.
 Come one, come all, to the musical treat by the best amateurs of the city, at the Grand Central hotel to-morrow night.
 Miss Jennie Loban, of Chicago, will be in the city on the occasion of the Maennerchor masquerade, with a full line of masks and costumes.
 Boots and shoes are going at cost at the annual sale of J. R. Lemen.
 Wajcick Egierski and Anna Kosjia have obtained a license to marry. Deputy Harbou was obliged to take to his bed after writing out the license.

Jottings About Town

p. 4, col. 1

Clipped By:

kevinrear
Wed, Feb 10, 2021