

11

ro- Mrs. Melvin Johnson, three miles nd southwest of Wakarusa, died Tues-life day morning in her home. She had ars been ill for about a year, following a an attack of influenza. Surviving a are her parents, one sister, Mrs.
No. Bemus Loucks, three miles west 45 of Wakarusa, and two brothers, ow, Degormah, Wakarusa, and Charles, ree at home. Funeral services were
h. held at 1 p. m. today in the home at and 1:30 p. m. in the Wakarusa be M. B. C. church, with Rev. H. M. in Metzger officiating. Burial in the ew Olive cemetery, five miles north of Wakarusa.

—

rv- LAGRANGE—Funeral services ht, for James Hoff, 77, were held this :30 afternoon in Caton, Bros., funeral a chapel with Rev. John S. Hoen-eld stine, of the Mount Zion Lutheran alk- church, officiating. Burial in lev. Greenwood cemetery. Mr. Hoff and died Tuesday evening in his home rie. southwest of here after a two 22, months' illness. He was married sad to Catherine Wilkins, of La-7, grange, Feb. 14, 1894. Surviving died are the widow, one daughter, Mrs. us- Mahlon Driver of Lagrange, and F. three sisters.

—

ella LAPORTE — Funeral services sad, for Andrew Grott, 68, Coolspring ollie township farmer, who died in St. sad, Anthony's hospital, Michigan 14 City, will be held in St. Mary's oth- church Friday morning. Survivors ter, are his widow; five sons, Thomas, D. Henry, Frank and Walter, Michigana City, and Clement, Laporte, and and three daughters, Mrs. Adam Smorin, South Bend, Mrs. Paul Deming, Cleveland, O., and Miss Clara Grott, Michigan City.

Michigan.

MARCELLUS—William Waugh, 77, former blacksmith, retired farmer and longtime resident of this city, died in his home on Main street early Tuesday evening after a long illness. He was born in Danville, Pa., and came to this city in 1873. He has resided here since that time. Surviving are his widow, two brothers, Harry and Daniel, a sister, Mrs. Dallis Bow-dish and a foster son, Walter, all residing in this city. Funeral Friday at 2 p. m. in the local Romig mortuary with burial in Marcellus cemetery.

TRIO REELECTED BY LUTHERANS

By United Press.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 15.—Rev.
F. H. Knubel, of New York, president, and other officers were re-elected today at the 10th biennial convention of the United Lutheran Church in America.

Rev. W. H. Greever, of New York is general secretary and Dr.
E. Clarence Miller, of Philadelphia, Pa., is treasurer.

These three officers also form the executive board. The terms are for two years.

Read Tribune classified ads. ts.

Obituary for Andrew Grott

p. 11, cols. 7-8

Clipped By:
kevinorear
Sat, Feb 20, 2021