

the afternoon.

Miss Teresa Grott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Grott, of Michigan City, Ind., became the bride of Adam A. Smorin, of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Smorin, of Chicago, Monday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, Rev. J. Norman officiating. The bride wore a dress of white satin trimmed with Spanish lace, and a full length tulle veil with a head-dress of pearls and valley lilies, and carried a shower bouquet of Killarney roses. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was played by the church organist. Miss Clara Grott, of Michigan City, the maid-of-honor wore a dress of coral georgette trimmed with shadow lace. The bridesmaids were Miss Evelyn Smorin, of Chicago, Miss Emma Jean Hoover, and Miss Marie Miller, of South Bend. Peter Smorin, of Chicago, was best man, and the ushers were John Smorin, jr., of Chicago, Henry Grott, and Clement Grott, of Michigan City. Fall flowers and ferns decorated the church. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding guests present from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. John Smorin, Miss Harriett Smorin, and Miss Josephine Smorin, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mores, of Milwaukee, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weschgal, Miss Martha Traban, Miss Cella Lincolnhall, and Edwin Keck, all of South Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Smorin left for a wedding trip to Detroit, Mich., and will be at home after Sept. 14 at 201 East Tutt street.
