ADAMS.

Adams, Iowa, July 8.—Albert Brazil and family spent the Fourth at Jake Lukenback's.

Mrs. Chambers still continues the same.
Clide Goden spent Wednesday visiting in Adams.

Mr. Adams is cutting rye, getting ready for harvest.
Will Gilbert and B. Thomson were in Adams on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Poole was seen in our berg the Fourth.
Miss Emma Fryermuth returned home Wednesday evening.

Miss Pearl Adams and Elsie Shaper were callers at Nichols Friday.

Miss Beckle Shoemaker and brother Willie are visiting Mrs. Amelia Lukenback.

We were glad to learn that Henry Meyers was some better the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Henry Shellabury has taken their daughter Grace to Muscatine to be doctored.

The friends of Bert Adams wholly exonerate him from all blame in the trouble he was in on the Fourth at the Nichols dance. As he was raised here from childhood it has been his first difficulty of any kind and has made a host of friends. The other party, Ed Canfield, from what is understood, is considered a tough throughout the country and makes trouble wherever he goes. He attacked Bert without cause of any kind and the people are somewhat surprised at the light fine V.
Reynolds put on him. We want it understood that Bert did not know an enemy.

WILTON.

Wilton, Iowa, July 8.—Prof. E. L.
Chandler, of Merrill, Wis., is visiting with his son, F. E. Chandler.

Will Huicke was a Davenport visitor yesterday.

Misses Ida and Hattie Abraham, of Moline, were visiting friends Thursday afternoon.

The Misses Dove entertained about twenty-five of their lady friends Thursday evening.

Chas. Holshauer, Chas. Younger, Albert Bannick and Harry Illingsworth spent last evening at Muscatine.

A number of our young people went to a picnic at Wild Cat's Den yesterday and took in the band concert at Muscatine on their way home.

Messrs C. E. Hall and W. H. Smale, of Davenport, F. S. Holmes, of Iowa City, and Wilbur Demorest, of Muscatine, all of the Iowa Telephone company, were in our city yesterday.

OAKLAND.

Oakland, Iowa, July 8.—We had quite a destructive storm in this neighborhood Thursday night. The wind blew a large amount of the oats and corn down.

Lucas Rife is assisting Mrs. H. H. Boyd with her housework.

Mrs. J. H. Baker is some better. All hope for her speedy recovery.

Miss Hubbard, of Muscatine, is the guest of her friend, Julia Hines, this week.

Mrs. John Schomberg's cousin, of Cedar township, is visiting with her this week.

Mrs. Billick, who has been quite sick with heart trouble, died at her home Thursday night. The funeral will be held at the Oakland church Sunday at 1 p. m. Interment at Columbus City.
