

OBITUARIES

She was born to the late Mariana is survived by her husband, Edward, and their children, from 17, 1921 in Waterloo, Iowa. She is survived by her husband, Edward, and their children, from 17, 1921 in Waterloo, Iowa. She is survived by her husband, Edward, and their children, from 17, 1921 in Waterloo, Iowa.

After graduating from Maltard High School, Jean attended Northwestern Bible Institute where she met and married Edward. Together they ministered alongside each other in Fairbanks, Iowa, Edgewood, Iowa, and Goshen, Michigan until their deaths on Oct. 6, 1977.

When reading Proverbs 31, many times her name could have been easily interchanged with the verse. She was a help-mate to her husband in the ministry and Jean herself had a special heart for the churches and community where they served.

Preceding Jean in death are her parents, her husband Marvin and brothers, Harold and Guy Edwin Bay, and her sisters, Mary Tiller (her twin), Margaret Tiler, Eleanor Boyles, and Shirley France.

Surviving her are her four sons: David (Dane) of Albion, Washington; Glenn (Reka) of Edgewood, Michigan; Dan (Thekla) of Indio, California; and Gary (Hansel of Kent, Washington) and also her two daughters: Linda (Diane) Lutz of Niles, Michigan and Donna Westberg of Chandler, Arizona.

In accordance with Jean's wishes cremation has taken place and a memorial service to honor her life will be held on Saturday, May 9, 2009 at the Evangelical Free Church located at 120 East Goshen Road, Niles at 11 a.m. Those wishing to make a memorial donation may do so to Buchanan Meadows Church of Christ, 409 Canal Street, Buchanan, Michigan at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, May 8, 2009 at the Community Evangelical Free Church located at 120 East Goshen Road, Niles at 11 a.m. Friends called one hour prior to mass in the church. Committal services followed at St. Joseph Valley Memorial Park, Goshen, Michigan. Hay Funeral Homes handled arrangements.
