

☆ ☆
JOSEPH E. OREAR DEAD
LEBO — Joseph E. Orear, a retired farmer who lived southeast of Lebo, died Thursday afternoon in Newman Memorial County Hospital in Emporia.
Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Jones Funeral Home, conducted by the Rev. John Jones, pastor of the Halls Summit Methodist Church. Burial will be in the Lincoln Cemetery.
The son of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Orear, Joseph E. Orear was born Oct. 25th, 1877, near Butler, Mo., and he was married to Cora Edwards Nov. 17th, 1903, in Burlington. He had been a resident of Coffey County for the past 62 years. He was preceded in death by his wife, who died July 22nd, 1962, and by five sisters and five brothers, and he is survived by two sons, William H., of Melvern, and Floyd E., of the home; two daughters, Mesdames Clarence Anderson and Paul Martindale, Burlington; one brother, Robert, of Butler, Mo., nine grandchildren and seven great - grandchildren.
☆ ☆

Joseph E. ORear Dead

KDO

Clipped By:

kevinorear

Wed, Apr 5, 2023